

I Underline the correct form from the options given in italics.

1. I'm looking / look for a new job at the moment.
2. Before I left home, I haven't been / hadn't been getting on very well with my parents.
3. I would die / I will die if that happened to me.
4. A: I phoned to you last night at about nine.
B: I am sorry, I was cooking / I cooked, so I wasn't answering / I didn't answer.
5. I wish I hadn't done / I didn't do that!
It was really stupid of me.
6. The restaurant was redecorated / was being redecorated, so we had to find somewhere else to eat.
7. The car won't start. The battery must be / must have been dead.
8. If it rains / will rain, the party will be held indoors.
9. The wind must have been / must be very strong to blow down so many trees.
10. In the next five years, everyone will be using / will have used the Internet.

10 points

II Put the verbs in brackets in the correct form.

1. I sometimes wish I _____ my grandfather on my mum's side (to know).
2. When I _____ home last night I bumped into an old friend of mine (to walk).
3. If you _____ to the gym more regularly, you would be able to start getting fit (to go).
4. By the end of the next year, Dr. Singh _____ on the project non-stop for 15 years (to work).
5. If she _____ five minutes earlier, she would have caught the burglar (to return).
6. The court _____ this particular evidence in private (to hear) now.
7. The policeman read the suspect his rights after he _____ him (to arrest).
8. Nowadays a great deal of research _____ into the possible causes of cancer (to do).
9. The door was open. It couldn't _____ (to open). I had locked it myself.
10. I _____ to help him if I had realized that he was ill (to offer).
11. She always has her car _____ by the same mechanic (to fix).
12. I let him _____ early as he wanted to meet his wife (to go).
13. The delegation is reported _____ in Moscow yesterday (to arrive).
14. I know my hair _____ beautiful, everybody says so (to be).
15. I suggest that we _____ this play (to stage).

15 points

IV Word formation

Nowadays there is a (0) variety of career opportunities in the media. It is possible to study (1) _____ at most universities, many of which offer (2) _____ courses in reporting on sports and (3) _____ . Newer degrees in media studies, which were (4) _____ as recently as ten years ago, attract (5) _____ students from all over the country. Some graduates prefer to work in (6) _____ as it allows them to use their (7) _____ in the (8) _____ of increasingly sophisticated TV and press advertisements. (9) _____, not all graduates find work as easily as there is still a lot of (10) _____ in the media industry, but things are improving.	vary journalist option entertain available enthusiasm advertise create produce fortunate employ
---	--

10 points

V Fill in the gaps with the following prepositions: for, of, with, out of, on, in, to.

1. My dad is a regional manager. He is responsible ____ five shops in this area.
2. "Don't use things that don't belong ____ you!" I said, taking the pen.
3. I quite like cycling, but I'm not very keen ____ doing it for more than an hour without a stop.
4. I used my new skis last weekend. They are great. I'm really pleased ____ it.
5. You must be very proud ____ her for doing so well in the examinations.
6. My boss shouted at me – he was really angry ____ me.
7. Jim was often late ____ his work, and lost his job as a result.
8. We succeeded ____ persuading Carol to lend us her boat.
9. William is capable ____ doing better work.
10. The whole team was ____ good spirits.
11. Helen had great admiration ____ her history teacher.
12. We walked on tiptoe ____ fear of being discovered.
13. This is one of the exceptions ____ the rule.
14. After running up the stairs I was quite ____ breath.
15. Tina is an authority ____ Byzantine architecture.

15 points

Total 63